

The ICPSR Summer Program

Guide to Ann Arbor

Ann Arbor, a community of endless variety, offers a wide range of activities to suit its diverse population. Perhaps the best way to learn about Ann Arbor is to simply explore it. Therefore, we offer the following information, not as an exhaustive list of all there is to do, but as a brief introduction to the area and its attractions.

For additional information, refer to the Ann Arbor Observer (www.arborweb.com), the Ann Arbor News (www.mlive.com) or the Michigan Daily--published weekly throughout the summer (www.michigandaily.com). For daily listings of movies, live entertainment, and special events, consult the Current, (www.ecurrent.com), a free magazine distributed by many Central-Campus area merchants.

For an update on University exhibits and activities, call the University Visitor Relations Office: 764-7260, or University Information at 764-1817, or visit <http://events.umich.edu>. You may also wish to visit the Ann Arbor Conference and Visitors Bureau at 211 East Huron Street, or give them a call at 995-7281.

Ann Arbor is easily accessible to walkers and bikers. A stroll through the campus area will reveal historic buildings, curious shops, and fascinating people. Many a pleasant afternoon can be spent lounging in the shade of an ancient elm, reading in the sun, or playing Frisbee in one of our campus's open areas.

The North Campus area, accessible by free University buses from Central Campus, has fewer buildings and more paths, making it a lovely, quiet, place for walking and biking.

Impossible to overlook, the Ann Arbor Art Fair draws artists and buyers from around the nation, and is the biggest event of the summer. Part cultural event, part carnival, the fair attracts musicians, magicians, mimes, and jugglers as well as the standard assortment of painters, sculptors, and artisans, whose wares will all be for sale. The streets are lined with colorful booths, and the air is filled with the scent of food, as well as the cries of hawkers, hucksters, buskers, and the shouts of the excited crowd. For 2006, it all takes place from July 19th to 22nd.

Also of particular interest is the Ann Arbor Summer Festival, a three-week celebration of performing artists, concerts, plays, and dance productions. Of special note are the free outdoor concerts and movies (with a beer tent!) at the Top of the Park almost every night. The festival is scheduled in 2006 from June 16th to July 9th. If you have any questions, or would like more information, call 647-2278 or view the schedule at www.annarborsummerfestival.org.

ONE FINAL NOTE: Because Ann Arbor is a quiet, Midwestern, college town, it is tempting to assume that crime is not a problem. Unfortunately, this is NOT true. Ann Arbor is a city of more than 100,000 people, and like other cities of its size, it has its unfortunate share of robberies, rapes, and other assaults. Without becoming paranoid about the situation, you must remain cautious. Lock your apartments, bicycles, and cars. Be aware always of your surroundings, and please be careful while out walking—especially at night.

ANN ARBOR NIGHT LIFE

BARS

KEY TO SYMBOLS:

M = live music

F = food

R = highly recommended

Alley Bar

112 W. Liberty (662-8757)

In the old Bab's location. A dark bar with a good selection of cigars and martinis. Closed Sunday and Monday.

Arbor Brewing Company

114 E. Washington (213-1393)

This brewpub is the center of local democratic politics, and has happy hour all night on Monday. Beware of the super-strength beer! F

The Arena

203 E. Washington (222-9999)

The location of this sports bar, slightly away from the immediate campus area, makes it a more pleasant place to watch your favorite teams, or at least it would if the service weren't so bad. Large-screen television, deep-fried appetizers. F

The Ark

316 S. Main (761-1451)

The hippest place for folk and traditional music. Beer sold to members only. Cover. M, R

Ashley's

338 S. State (996-9191)

Large selection of imported and local beers with mediocre bar food. Try the Stilton fries. F

AutBar

315 Braun (994-3677)

Ann Arbor's only gay bar, with a café downstairs. Check out the Mexican specialties at Sunday brunch. F

Bab's Underground Lounge

213 S. Ashley (997-0800)

The old Bab's, but improved and in a much better location. Looks like an office building, but the bar is downstairs. Superb martinis. R

The Blind Pig

208 S. First (996-8555)

Rock, blues, jazz, zydeco, you name it. Good local bands, some national acts. Highly recommended. Monday night karaoke is particularly popular among graduate students. Cover charged Friday and Saturday. M

Buffalo Wild Wings

205 S. State (997-9143)

A new chain in town, rivaling the Arena for the title of best sportsbar. Try all of their 13 flavors of wings, especially on Tuesday, when they sell for 35 cents apiece. Some have complained of poor service. F

Casey's Tavern

304 Depot (665-6775)

A true townie hangout. Excellent burgers and super-large onion rings. No smoking. F, R

The Cavern Club

210 S. First (332-9900)

Four clubs in one location, at least one with live music most nights. Dancing every night. Monday night karaoke on the top level (known as Circus) rivals that of the Blind Pig. $8 Friday and Saturday. M

Conor O'Neill's

318 S. Main (665-2968)

This cheesy Irish pub is THE place to watch soccer (especially if you come from a country where they call it football). Trivia on Monday nights, Irish music Sundays, and frequently other live music Tuesday-Thursday. A bit of a meat market on weekends. M, F

Dominick's

812 Monroe (663-5414)

Beer and pizza, outdoor porches. A favorite Summer Program hangout, with a happenin' Friday happy hour & large pitchers of sangria! F, R

The Earle Wine Bar

121 W. Washington (994-0211)

A very lovely, dark, romantic bar with excellent service and a huge wine list. A favorite of many Ann Arborites, and a great place for a peaceful conversation. Excellent happy hour specials – be sure to try the mussels -- and a good opportunity to sample some of the restaurant's wonderful food. Quiet, unobtrusive jazz. The best bar in town to take your father, or at least my father. Try all of the new summer bar specials. M, F, R

Eight Ball

208 S. First (996-8555)

Below the Blind Pig. A smoky pool hall with darts and cheap beer. Nevertheless, it smells bad in there.

Elbow Room

6 S. Washington, Ypsilanti (483-6374)

www.ypsirocks.com

Feeling stifled by the yuppies in Ann Arbor? Want to shoot pool and get stinking drunk? Want to chain smoke with people who don't plan to live long enough to get emphysema anyway? Want to see angry bands play angry music for angry people? Take a cab to Ypsi and check out the Elbow Room. Live music almost every night in a completely unpretentious, delightfully depraved atmosphere. Bands run the gamut of hardcore, punk, death metal, glam, rockabilly, psychobilly, noise-pop, trash-funk, alt-country, thrash, and genuine rock-and-roll. No mullet jokes if you want to get home in one piece. R

Firefly

207 S. Ashley (665-9090)

Ann Arbor's hometown jazz club. A great deal on Monday nights, when the $5 cover includes dinner. M, F

Full Moon

207 S. Main (665-8484)

Best pool-hall in town—about a dozen tables. Sidewalk tables also available (but no sidewalk pool). Large beer selection, chili, ribs, and a new Mexican menu. More student-friendly than most Main Street establishments. F

Good Time Charley's

1140 S. University (668-8411)

Popular student bar, outdoor tables and creative drinks. F

Grizzly Peak Brewing Company

120 W. Washington (741-7325)

This brew pub has superb food, but can be quite busy on weekends. It now boasts two bars: the non-smoking bar closes at 11, while the smoking bar stays open until two with a late-night happy hour. New flat-screen televisions make both fantastic places to watch sports, election returns, whatever. Best burgers in Ann Arbor. F, R

Heidelberg

215 N. Main (663-7758)

Downstairs, underneath the restaurant, is a real throwback of a bar with a great jukebox. Smells like beer, acrid smoke, and sweaty old guys, and yet is kind of pleasant anyway. On the second floor, above the restaurant, is a little club that hosts concerts every now and then and also converts into a Latin Music nightclub once a week or so. All in all, a peculiar, but compelling place. M

Leopold Brothers

523 S. Main (747-9806)

The world's first environmentally-sustainable brew pub, now serving food and handcrafted liquor as well. Large, open atmosphere with pool and boardgames. Occasional movie festivals on the wall outside. F

Mitch's Place

1301 S. University (665-2650)

Named "best pickup bar" by the Ann Arbor Observer. Cover. M, F

Old Town

122 W. Liberty (663-9291)

Classical and jazz. Quiet & inexpensive. M, F

Red Hawk Bar & Grill

316 S. State (994-4004)

Upscale Casey's Tavern on State. If you are looking for a bar, go to Casey's, but for superior food and a larger selection, go to Red Hawk. Especially recommended for lunch. F

Rick's American Cafe

411 Church (996-2747)

A large bar frequented mainly by medical students and the fake ID crowd. Cheap pitchers. M

Score Keepers

310 Maynard (995-0100)

Sports bar, 26 TV screens, burgers, sandwiches, and that stale beer aroma. Popular U-M hangout. F

Touchdown Café

1220 S. University (665-7777)

A passable sports bar on South U. Live music and Hip-Hop some nights. Eminem even showed up once—followed shortly thereafter by the police. F

Vinology

110 S. Main St. (222-9841)

This new wine bar also does a retail business. If you feel like a splurge, try the Tuesday night wine tastings, 7-9pm, $35. F, R.

GAY ORIENTEDAut Bar

315 Braun Ct (994-3677)

Restaurant and bar with good food and a quiet atmosphere. Highly recommended for Sunday brunch. Straight friendly. F, R

Necto

516 E. Liberty (994-5835)

The re-opening of an Ann Arbor legend. A dance club downtown where you can get your groove on. Thursday night draws the Detroit techno crowd, and Friday is gay night.

COMEDY CLUBSImprov Inferno

309 S. Main (214-7080)

Check out the schedule for this new comedy club at www.improvinferno.com.

Mainstreet Comedy Showcase

314 E. Liberty (996-9080)

Downstairs from Seva restaurant. Popular local and national comedians. Tuesday-Saturday nights, 8:30 & 11:00 p.m. shows.

DANCE CLUBSNecto

516 E. Liberty (994-5835)

A dance club downtown where you can get your groove on. Thursday night draws the Detroit techno crowd, and Friday is gay night.

The Cavern Club

210 S. First (332-9900)

Four clubs in one location, at least one with live music most nights. $8 Friday and Saturday.

Café Oz

210 S. Fifth (222-4770)

The most unique nightspot in town. Hang out, dance, eat excellent Middle Eastern food and smoke a hookah. Open Wednesday-Saturday, but come on Fridays for Arabic, Bhangra, and Hindi music, and a bellydancer at 12:30. More details at www.ozannarbor.com.

Studio 4

313 S. Fourth Ave. (302-3687)

$10 cover and no one I know has been willing to pay it and find out for certain how much this place probably sucks.

Large menu, good food. $$B

ETHNIC RESTAURANTSASIANEcclectic:Mongolian Barbecue

200 S. Main
Self-serve, cook it yourself, all-U-can-eat. Wildly popular, but overpriced. Expect at least an hour and a half wait for weekend dinner. Frankly, it's not worth the trouble. $$B

Pacific Rim by Kana

112 W. Liberty (662-9303)
The most upscale Asian restaurant in town. Spicy and hot, tasty. More of a pan-Asian restaurant but it has a 10% student discount. $$S

Zanzibar

214 S. State (994-7777)
Eclectic international menu. A bit pricey, but good for lunch. Excellent mojitos any time of the day! $$B

*Chinese:Champion House

120 E. Liberty (741-8100)
Japanese steak house & Chinese restaurant coexist as two separate entities under the same roof. Great lunch specials. $$B

327 Braun Ct. (663-3111)
Sushi bar, tempura, sukiyaki. $$B

Miki

106 S. First (665-8226)
The best sushi bar in Ann Arbor, and other Japanese food. *$$B

Sushi.come

715 N. University (213-3044)
No, that's not a typo. Right next to campus, and quite cheap for a sushi joint. Good food, and you'll feel a little more stylish than if you had a hotdog. All-you-can eat sushi brunch on Sundays. **$

Totoro

215 S. State (302-3511)
Another sushi restaurant near campus, but with higher prices than sushi.come. Other Japanese food as well. **$$

Yamato

403 N. Fifth (inside Kerrytown) (998-3484)
A quiet but excellent sushi restaurant. ***$$

Korean:

Eastern Accents

214 S. Fourth Ave. (332-8782)
Coffee house/tea room doubles as a bakery and restaurant. Excellent meat-filled pastries. **$

Kosmo Deli

415 N. Fifth Ave (668-4070)
Inside the Kerrytown shopping center. Excellent and eclectic food. Try your bebimbop with brown rice, and be sure to check out the bulgogi hoagie! ***$

Seoul Korner

414 E. William (761-1977)
Reasonably cheap Korean food. The official ICPSR faculty/staff lunch-hangout. ***$

Steve's Lunch

1313 S. University (769-2288)
Mainly a lunch spot. Quite cheap and quick. *$

University Café

621 Church (662-7162)
Their spicy chicken is good luck before a test.

*Thai:Banh Na Laos and Thai Cuisine

4837 Washtenaw (528-2336)
Something a bit different. Try this when you get tired of Tuptim. **$$

Lotus

2803 Oak Valley (668-2828)
In the Target shopping center. A bit of a drive, but definitely worth it. **$$

Siam Cuisine

311 Braun Ct. (663-4083)
Thai food near Kerrytown. *$$

Tuptim

4896 Washtenaw (528-5588)

Near campus, good lunch buffet. $$B

Shalimar

211 E. Washington (663-1500)
307 S. Main (663-1500)
Now in two locations. On Main Street, enjoy the haute cuisine of India. The Washington Street location features Indian/Chinese cuisine. Both have lunch buffets. $$B

Shehan Shah

214 E. Washington (668-7323)
Dishes prepared to taste. $B

LATIN AMERICANBandito's

216 S. 4th Ave. (996-0234)
Enchiladas, burritos, good salsa. *$B

Big Ten Burrito

810 S. State (222-4822)
Great burritos and low prices. Even better, the menu at this takeout restaurant lists prices with tax included in even dollar amounts, facilitating post-bar ordering. The giant burritos are really huge. One large table for eating in. Open until 4am. c-$

La Fiesta Mexicana

529 W. Cross, Ypsilanti. (483-1666)
 Some rather elaborate dishes, many of which will seem surprisingly light to those accustomed to big piles of beans and goopy cheese. Fantastic tamales. ****$$

Sabor Latino

211 N. Main (214-7775)
 Excellent food from all over Latin America, but inexpensive and closer to home. Check out the daily specials. Also try their food truck on the corner of State and North University. ***$

112 W. Washington (769-2020)
 The best omelette spot in town now has an excellent and eclectic dinner menu. *$$B

*Central:Amadeus Cafe

122 E. Washington (665-8767)
 Central European food, coffee, pastries. Try their Sunday brunch. ****$$

The Heidelberg

215 N. Main (663-7758)
 Old fashioned atmosphere, i.e., kinda stinky and smokey inside. But sadly it's the only German place left in town. $B

*Italian:Argerio's

300 Detroit Street (665-0444)
 Family owned, small, near Kerrytown. $$B

Bella Ciao Trattoria

Brew Pub with a nice selection of beers and pretty good pub food—fish and chips, burgers, shepherds pie, etc. Beers are strong and are half price all night Monday. *$B

Casey's Tavern

304 Depot Street (665-6775)

Beer and burgers, what more do you need? Check out the super-size onion rings. $B

The Chop House

322 S. Main (669-9977)

The most expensive steak in Ann Arbor. Feeling swanky and looking for the local lounge scene? Dig into a giant, bloody, hunk of meat and wash it down with a big martini. You'll feel like Dean Martin in this place. Excellent caviar. *$B

Grizzly Peak Brewing Company

120 W. Washington (741-7325)

Brew pub with excellent food. Can be quite busy on weekends, but the best burgers in Ann Arbor are worth the wait. $B

Knight's

2324 Dexter Road. (665-8644)

Best steak in Ann Arbor. Cozy and old-fashioned. Generous pours of whiskey. $B

SHOPPING

The Campus area shopping district includes State, South University, and the surrounding streets. There are also stores down East Liberty toward Main, and on cross-streets. Downtown, or several blocks to the east, you will find three blocks of shops on Main Street, between Huron and William.

Kerrytown is an assortment of century-old buildings, which house shops selling food, clothing, art, and furniture. At Detroit Street, between Fifth and Fourth.

At the Farmer's Market, near Kerrytown, you will discover local produce and crafts offered up every Wednesday and Saturday between sunrise and mid-afternoon.

The Sunday Artisan Market, also at Kerrytown, is a place to look over arts and crafts, and enjoy performances.

Near North Campus are the courtyard shops of the North Campus Plaza (1665-1799 Plymouth Rd.) featuring stores and restaurants.

While Ann Arbor is ringed by strip malls, the only real mall is Briarwood on South State near I-94. Strip malls of note are Arborland, at Washtenaw and US-23; the Plymouth Mall, at Plymouth Rd and US-23; and the Westgate shopping center, at the corner of Jackson and Maple.

BOOKSTORESBarnes and Noble

In the Michigan Union. Student bookstore, with textbooks and lots of souvenir stuff.

Borders Books and Music

612 E. Liberty (668-7652)

The flagship store. This is where the empire was born. With over 90,000 titles, Borders is one of the best bookstores in the nation, and certainly worth an afternoon's browse.

Dawn Treader Books

514 East Liberty (995-1008)

1202 South University (665-2270)

Extensive selection of used, out of print and rare books. You can also sell books to them.

Michigan Book and Supply

317 South State Street.

Student bookstore with textbooks, MICHIGAN shirts (You're gonna feel like a dork until you have one), and a nice art supply department.

Shaman Drum Bookstore

313 South State (662-7407)

A small store which specializes in both new and used titles in the humanities and social sciences. An excellent and well-loved independent store.

Ulrich's Books

549 East University 662-3201

A great big textbook store, and it also sells computer supplies, art supplies, and patriotic U of M paraphernalia.

Ann Arbor boasts many used, commercial, and specialized bookstores. Consult a directory.

GROCERSPeople's Food Co-op

216 N. Fourth Ave. (994-9174)

Organic and conventional produce, bulk foods, soy products, ice cream, dairy, vitamins, salad and hot food bar, frozen foods, even natural cleaning supplies. Enjoy a cup of Fair Trade coffee from Café Verde while you shop (or before or after).

Kerrytown Shops

407 N. Fifth Ave., inside Kerrytown (665-2558)

An amazing selection of produce year-round, along with some gourmet and mundane grocery items. Also boasts Monahan's Seafood Market and Sparrow Meat and Produce Markets. The prices are high, but the products are superb and the selection is impressive.

White Market

609 E. William (663-4253)

Small grocery, but with more mainstream products than the Co-op or Kerrytown. More expensive than a large grocery, cheaper than a party store.

Knight's Market

420 Miller (665-6494)

With no sign outside, this market is a hidden gem. Everything you need, and possibly the best butcher shop in town.

Big Market

341 East Huron (662-4445)

Party store/deli, but with a great selection of spices and rarely seen Mediterranean imports.

Village Corner

601 S. Forest, at South University (995-1818)

Eclectic store proffering both Twinkies and $200 bottles of Bordeaux. One of the largest wine sellers in the area.

Trader Joe's

2398 E. Stadium (975-2455)

In the old Whole Foods location. The much-loved California food store has finally made its way to Ann Arbor. A wide selection of inexpensive and delicious prepared and frozen foods, plus regular grocery items. The most exciting thing, though, is the enormous stock of wine, starting at $3.

Whole Foods

3135 Washtenaw (975-4500)

The new Whole Foods is almost a museum of fetishized food. The largest selection of organic and natural groceries, including gigantic meat, fish, bakery, and deli counters. Prepared foods abound, including a hot bar and a salad bar, and tables where you can eat right away. Beware if allergic to an atmosphere of pretentious yuppie entitlement. Valet parking available.

Busch's

2240 S. Main (998-2666)

2020 Green Rd. (994-7200)

Large supermarket with better selection and service than Kroger.

Hiller's

3615 Washtenaw (677-2370)

Large supermarket. The best place for international foods.

Kroger

1919 S. Industrial (761-1966)

400 S. Maple (213-2340)

2502 Packard (971-0288)

2641 Plymouth (994-0600)

Large supermarket--several locations.

Meijer

3145 Ann Arbor-Saline Rd. (997-3901)

3825 Carpenter Rd. (677-7101)

Bigger than life superstore, and it never closes!

DRUG STORESThe Prescription Shop

423 E Washington (662-3143)

Campus Corner

818 S State (665-4431)

Corner of Packard.

Village Apothecary

1112 South University (663-5533)

Between Church St. and East University.

Prescriptions can also be filled at the University Health Service, 207 Fletcher (764-8320), and at the University of Michigan Hospital.

MUSEUMS & CAMPUS CULTURAL FACILITIESBentley Historical Library

1150 Beal Ave. (764-3482)

Archive of Michiganiana.

Clements Library

909 East University (764-2347)

Displays of rare books, letters, newspapers, and maps from colonial and early US. history.

Special exhibits throughout the year. Check out their new cookbook collection.

Rare Books and Special Collections

7th floor Graduate Library (764-9377)

Rare books, manuscripts, photographs. Special collections periodically on display. Great view of campus from up there.

Gerald R. Ford Library

1000 Beal, North Campus (668-2218)

The repository of documents from the Ford administration, the library also houses displays of Ford's two trips to China. Sadly, though, no Chevy Chase impersonation memorabilia.

Stearns Collection of Musical Instruments

School of Music-N. Campus (763-4839)

Displays of archaic and rare instruments.

The Museum of Art

525 S. State (763-1231)

Permanent displays of western art dating from the 6th century, and Eastern art dating from 1000 BC, as well as sculptures, graphics, and contemporary paintings.

Museum of Natural History

1109 Geddes Ave. (764-0478)

Collections of prehistoric human and non human specimens, early cultural artifacts, etc.

Kelsey Museum of Archeology

434 South State. (764-9304)

Museum collection features artifacts from the civilizations of classical Rome and the Middle-East, including Egypt.

Kempf House

312 South Division (994-4898)

Authentic 1853 Greek revival architecture houses one of Ann Arbor's most popular tourist spots.

Ann Arbor Hands-On Museum.

219 East Huron (995-5439)

Primarily for children, but lots of fun for grownups too.

Nichols Arboretum

1827 Geddes Rd. (998-7175)

Covers 138 acres, from Geddes to the Huron River. Contains one of the most complete collections of trees and plants in North America. A fun place to run, play Frisbee, or hang out.

Matthaei Botanical Gardens

1800 Dixboro Rd. (998-7061)

Comprises a conservatory and an extensive outdoor collection of plants and trees. Several nature trails on 280 acres. Guided tours for groups.

Charles Baird Carillon

Located in Burton Memorial Tower, the third largest carillon in the world presents concerts periodically, and on weekdays from noon-12:30.

FILM & LIVE ENTERTAINMENT

The University film societies offer movie screenings periodically. Consult Current, the Michigan Daily, or the Ann Arbor News for schedules, or call the organizations for information.

Ann Arbor Film Co-op (769-7787)
Cinema Guild (994-0027)
Cinema II (665-4626)
EMU Theater (487-1221)
Michigan Theater (668-8480,
www.michtheater.com)

There are also, of course, many commercial theaters playing first-run movies. Check the local papers. The beautiful, historic Michigan Theater on Liberty and the State Theater, on State, at Liberty are the only commercial theaters within convenient walking distance of campus. Listings for both theaters can be found at www.michtheater.org.

The Michigan Theater, Hill Auditorium, the Mendelssohn Theater, and the Power Center for the Performing Arts are the major venues for live entertainment. Performance information can be had by visiting or calling the Union Ticket Office on the lower level of the Michigan Union (763-TKTS). The University Musical Society sponsors a year-round concert series, for which tickets can be obtained either by phoning 764-2538, or by visiting the Society's office in Burton Tower. There are also local theater companies which produce several plays each year. Among these are the Ann Arbor Civic Theater (662-7282), and the Performance Network (663-0681).

OUTSIDE ANN ARBOR

From Ann Arbor, it is a short drive to a number of impressive attractions in lower Michigan. You may wish to consider a day trip to one or more of the following points.

Arab American National Museum

13624 Michigan Avenue
Dearborn, MI 48126 (313-582-2266)

The nation's first museum devoted to the history of Arab-Americans. "If one had to sum up the gleaming new Arab-American National Museum in a few short words and phrases, they would include the words impressive, breathtaking, and well worth a long drive, regardless of whether you are of Arab ancestry." –Jack Lessenberry, The Toledo Blade

Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History

315 E. Warren
Detroit, Michigan (313) 494-5800

The largest African American historical museum in the world. Serves the Metropolitan Detroit and national communities by providing exceptional exhibitions and programs based on outstanding collections and research that explore the diversity of African American history and culture. Offers innovative exhibits that celebrate significant events and accomplishments of African Americans.

Depot Town

East Cross St., Ypsilanti Michigan
A neighborhood of historic buildings housing antique stores, restaurants, and a real live caboose. Farmer's market Saturday mornings. (7 miles)

Greenfield Village and Henry Ford Museum

Dearborn, Michigan (313-271-1620)
Greenfield Village, covering 260 acres, is a collection of faithfully restored historic buildings, many of which have been relocated from elsewhere before they could decompose or be destroyed. The Henry Ford Museum, a museum of American industry and progress, has an extensive collection of antique modes of transportation. The two adjacent facilities are rated among the top ten museum attractions in the US., and both are fascinating as well as fun. (35 miles)

Detroit Zoological Park

Royal Oak, Michigan (810-398-0900)

Michigan State University's botanical gardens. Large conservatory, flower gardens, ornamental trees and bushes, a lake with swans, and woods with nature trail. Take I-94 west to Chelsea, M-52 south 20 miles, then west on M-50 for four miles through Tipton. The Gardens are on the right.

Pinckney State Recreation Area

Pinckney, Michigan

Sprawling over eleven thousand acres of wooded hills, the Area has facilities for camping and picnicking, as well as several lakes with public beaches, and a system of beautiful trails for hiking and mountain-biking (no bike rentals). While there, you will probably also come across the curiosity that is the town of Hell, Michigan. Buy your very own I've been to Hell and back! T-shirt and then, if you dare, brave a bar full of locals and have dinner at the Dam-Site Inn. (20 miles northwest)

Frankenmuth

Just north of Flint, off I-75

The quaint German town of Frankenmuth is famous for its family style restaurants, Christmas decoration shops, excellent brewery, and cheese and sausage house. (80 miles)
