Information about Copyrighted Content

Some instruments administered as part of this study may contain in whole or substantially in part contents from copyrighted instruments. Reproductions of the instruments are provided as documentation for the analysis of the data associated with this collection. Restrictions on "fair use" apply to all copyrighted content. More information about the reproduction of copyrighted works by educators and librarians is available from the United States Copyright Office.

NOTICE
WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

Once your completed and signed form is received (Sections 1, 2, and 3 must be completed), ICPSR will contact you to arrange delivery of the Public-Use Version of the Data.

Terms of Use

These data are distributed under the following terms of use.
Privacy of RESEARCH SUBJECTS

Any intentional identification or disclosure of a local health department (the research subjects of this study) violates the terms of use. Therefore, users of the data agree:

- To use this dataset solely for statistical analysis and reporting of aggregated information, and not for investigation of specific local health departments, except when identification is authorized in writing by ICPSR
- To make no use of the identity of any local health department discovered inadvertently, and to advise ICPSR of any such discovery

Redistribution of Data

You agree not to redistribute the data or accompanying materials without the written agreement of ICPSR.

Citing Data

You agree to reference the recommended bibliographic citation in any publication that employs resources provided by ICPSR. Authors of publications based on ICPSR data are required to send citations of their published works to ICPSR for inclusion in a database of related publications (bibliography@icpsr.umich.edu).

Any publication using these data must acknowledge the National Association of County and City Health Officials (NACCHO) and the funders of this study: the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. NACCHO also requests that researchers provide the Association with a copy of any major publication (e.g., report or journal article) based on these data.

Disclaimer

You acknowledge that the original collector of the data, ICPSR, and the relevant funding agency bear no responsibility for use of the data or for interpretations or inferences based upon such uses.

You also acknowledge that these data are self-reported by local health departments. While the principal investigator, the National Association of County and City Health Officials, has examined these data and removed data that were clearly erroneous, the data provided by the local health departments were not independently verified.
Data Use

These data are provided for the use specified by the researcher in Section 2. If the data will be used for another research purpose, another data use request must be submitted to ICPSR.

ICPSR Disclosure

Upon request, ICPSR will share your completed request form for the Public-Use Version of the Data with the National Association of County and City Health Officials and/or the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.

Violations

If ICPSR determines that the terms of this use agreement has been violated, ICPSR will act according to our policy on terms of use violations. Sanctions can include:

- ICPSR may revoke the existing agreement, demand the return of the data in question, and deny all future access to ICPSR data.
- The violation may be reported to the Research Integrity Officer, Institutional Review Board, or Human Subjects Review Committee of the user's institution. A range of sanctions are available to institutions including revocation of tenure and termination.
- If the confidentiality of human subjects has been violated, the case may be reported to the Federal Office for Human Research Protections. This may result in an investigation of the user's institution, which can result in institution-wide sanctions including the suspension of all research grants.
- A court may award the payment of damages to any individual(s)/organization(s) harmed by the breach of the agreement.

By signing this form, I agree to the terms of use.
