ICPSR Adds Value to Data
Analysis-ready collections include SAS, SPSS, and Stata data files and detailed technical documentation in Portable Document Format. Each data collection is reviewed for disclosure risks and modified if necessary to preserve respondent confidentiality. ICPSR also prepares restricted-use datasets for use by individual researchers under controlled conditions.

ICPSR Preserves Social Science Digital Content
We preserve valuable resources for the social science research community. All of our digital content is managed in accordance with prevailing standards and practices to ensure its ongoing usability.

ICPSR Provides Unique Services and Tools
• Efficient search tools to locate data readily
• Convenient data delivery from home, campus, work, or when traveling
• Online data analysis tools that enable users to analyze data without downloading files or using specialized statistical software
• Bibliography of Data-Related Literature containing over 40,000 citations to publications based on ICPSR data, with links to full text of publications and associated data
• New data notification via our Web site, via email subscription, and through RSS feeds

ICPSR Is a Membership Organization

ICPSR’s membership includes over 600 educational and research institutions around the world. ICPSR member institutions pay annual dues that entitle faculty, staff, and students to the full range of services provided by ICPSR. Individuals at ICPSR member institutions have direct, free access to all of ICPSR’s data resources and services. Each ICPSR member campus has a locally designated person known as the Official Representative (OR), who can assist users in downloading, extracting, and analyzing ICPSR data. For information on ICPSR membership benefits and how to become an ICPSR member, see the Membership Web pages: www.icpsr.umich.edu/membership.

Membership Benefits

- A wealth of data. ICPSR provides access to important data in the social sciences and benefits all faculty and students across a campus.
- Access to training and instruction at discounted rates. Members of ICPSR receive discounted tuition and travel stipends toward ICPSR’s renowned Summer Program in Quantitative Methods of Social Research.
- User support. ICPSR has over 45 years of experience in supporting data use. ICPSR’s Official Representatives at member institutions also assist users locally in utilizing our data and educational resources.

ICPSR Provides Educational Resources

ICPSR’s Summer Program in Quantitative Methods is internationally recognized as the premier program for training in the methodology of social science research. Participants typically represent approximately 25 different academic disciplines from more than 200 colleges, universities, and organizations around the world.

The Summer Program provides a comprehensive, integrated program of studies in research design, statistics, data analysis, and social science methodology. Basic methodological training is offered, along with opportunities for advanced work in specialized areas. Instruction integrates quantitative analytic strategies within the broader context of substantive social research. Instructors are drawn from among the leaders in their fields. www.icpsr.umich.edu/sumprog
