ICPSR Restricted-Use Data Management

Providing SECURE ACCESS to datasets containing confidential or highly sensitive data

ICPSR imposes stringent requirements for access off-site — or on-site in our physical data enclave.

Identifying
Studies with restricted-use datasets are highlighted in red on the study home page.

Accessing
- Researchers consent to restricted-use agreement.
- Data-protection plan and IRB review documentation typically required.
- Three methods of data dissemination:
  - Secure dissemination — Data encrypted and delivered via download or CD-ROM.
  - Virtual Data Enclave (VDE) — Data stay on ICPSR file servers and are analyzed virtually by researchers. Analyses reviewed for disclosure risk before results are transferred to researchers.
  - Physical enclave — Researchers analyze data at ICPSR building. Results reviewed for disclosure before release.

Depositing
Deposits of restricted-use data are made easily through secure Data Deposit Form at www.icpsr.umich.edu/deposit.
